

November 2nd, 2020

Dear First Grade Parents,

It is hard to believe that we are getting toward the end of our first trimester. Here are a few reminders of dates and important things to remember:

October Read Aloud Charts are due. Please return with next packet. One for November will be coming home this week.

Students are being assessed on reciting the prayer “The Our Father”, counting to 120 and kindergarten / first grade sight words. Please practice these at home.

Book Orders are due: By November 11th Code: LMR9V

Survey: Please fill out survey online <https://forms.gle/4uWkkGJDuTBXj1G19> or return in packet next week. The link was also included in an email sent home last Friday, Oct. 30th. I appreciate your feedback as we have evolved through this hybrid model together. The students are very excited to be at school and with their peers. We want to keep it a safe and fun learning environment. I am very proud of our first graders!

ICRS Sweaters and Jackets: The weather has changed and students need to wear their uniform sweaters and jackets to school. We want everyone to stay as healthy as possible!

November 6th: Last Day of 1st Trimester. Class Zoom Meeting @ 9AM Due to the half day, there will not be a full day’s of work assigned for the half day. Instead, there will be an assignment given with our zoom meeting, and students will have a suggested list of things to do on their learning at home slide.

November 13th: Celebrating Veteran’s Day Holiday! No School work and no zoom meeting!

By November 19th: Report Cards Come Home

November 20th: Class Zoom Meeting @ 9AM

November 23rd – 27th: Parent/Teacher Conferences by Zoom / Thanksgiving Vacation

Thank you and God Bless,

Mrs. Twedt
