Dear ICRS Parents and Friends,

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

All Kindergartners and 1st graders are on campus.

Kindergarten morning prayer ends with students turning to their neighbor and saying, "God loves you."

First graders happy to be one whole class again at recess.

Mrs. Espinoza teaches the full day preschool. Today preschoolers learned about love and kindness that Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. preached.

EMPLOYMENT AT ICRS

- See our webpage, icrsweb.org, for job openings. The school is still seeking a St. Joseph Center Event Supervisor. Email Principal Rodrigues if you would like more information or to apply for the PT position.

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK

- January 31- February 5. During this week students will show their appreciation to parents, grandparents, priests and parishioners, teachers, and community members especially those on the front line during COVID. This will also be spirit week for students. Watch for daily updates on the school Facebook page.
 - Monday - Crazy socks day
 - Tuesday - Pajama Day or Relaxed attire
 - Wednesday - Crazy hat day
 - Thursday - Favorite Sports Team day

REMINDERS

- If you have a NEW preschooler, Kindergartener or other sibling now is the time to apply. Start here for NEW STUDENT applications.
- Re-enrollment for next year begins March 1 for current families. I will email current families the enrollment link on March 1. You do not need to fill out any information at this time except to tell us if you have other plans for your children next year.
- The Office of Catholic Schools is conducting a survey of all school families, staff, parishioners, and clergy. Please click here to participate in the survey.
